DORSET COUNCIL

QUALIFIED PERSONS ADVICE

The Local Government Act 1993, Section 65, provides (in part) as follows: -

- A general manager must ensure that any advice, information or recommendation given to the Council is given by a person who has the qualifications or experience necessary to give such advice, information or recommendation.
- A council is not to decide on any matter which requires the advice of a qualified person without considering such advice unless the general manager certifies in writing that such advice was obtained and taken into account in providing general advice to the Council.

I therefore certify that with respect to all advice, information or recommendation provided to the Council in or with this agenda:

- i. the advice, information or recommendation is given by a person who has the qualifications or experience necessary to give such advice, information or recommendation; and
- ii. where any advice is directly given by a person who does not have the required qualifications or experience that person has obtained and taken into account in that person's general advice the advice from an appropriately qualified or experienced person.
